Dear Parent / Carer

As part of our recent drive to raise the profile of reading in school and create a World Class Reading Community, we are pleased to introduce a new tool for students to access e-books on line or on their private devices at home.

You may have heard your son/daughter talk about using the Reading Cloud at school to access the school library catalogue and rate and review their recent reads. As part of this package students can also access the site from home and additionally have access to a set of e-books and audio books through an online app called Sora.

Overleaf we have provided some step by step instructions on how to find and log onto the app, opening up a world of online resources to our students.

Please take time to try and access the app at home. Should students have any questions or have lost their username and password they should visit the school library to retrieve this and get any advice needed.

Thank you for your help in keeping the importance of reading high profile as this will help academic success across all subjects in future years.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs N Bedworth

ACCESSING EBOOKS WITH THE SORA APP

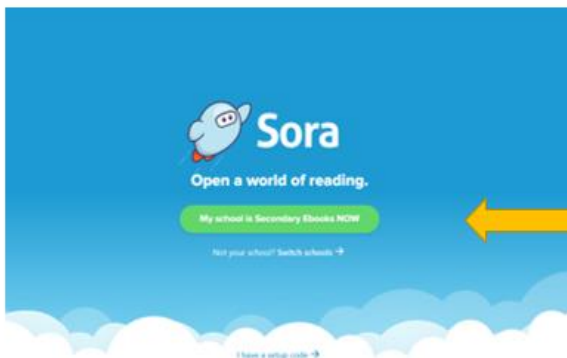

On your computer browser or in the app store go to the Sora app.

Either : www.soraapp.com

or look for this icon in the app store :

A useful 'how to' video can be found at:
<https://resources.overdrive.com/sora-overview/>

Choose the Secondary Ebooks
NOW option

Do not search for St Mary's College in the school list –
keep Secondary Ebooks NOW
in this box

Log in, using the SMC unique PIN 22316 followed by your reading cloud log in number, which is then repeated as your password
